Course Purposes:

Initiate the student in the use of English as a second language. The student will be able to understand and use very frequently used everyday expressions related to areas of experience that are especially relevant to them. You will be able to communicate when carrying out simple and daily tasks that do not require more than simple and direct exchanges of information on matters that are known or habitual to you. You will know how to write in simple terms about aspects of your past and your environment, as well as issues related to your immediate needs.

Course Description:

Theoretical-practical course proposes to initiate the student in the use of the English language as a foreign language according to the CEFR (Common European Framework of Reference) for languages. At the end of the semester and the learning objectives are met, the student must be located at an A1 level within it (Basic User). At this level, the student will be able to understand simple information related to the immediate context when it is provided at a slow and/or deliberate cadence, write short and simple texts, as well as interact in a way that can cover their basic needs of daily life at an international level.

Course Requirements:

- *Be enrolled in the course.
- *Have a minimum attendance of 80% to be entitled to take the partial exams.
- * Comply with their work / homework assigned by the teacher.
- *Go to class on time, those students who arrive 15 minutes late will be tardy. Three delay equal one absence.
- *Submit the partial exams electronically during the semester on the day and time indicated by the teacher.

For the proper development of the course, it is necessary that the student commits to:

- *Read at home the assigned topics and/or tasks assigned by the teacher at the end of each class.
- * Comply with the material assigned by the teacher on the Moodle platform.
- *Participate in class.
- *Respect the opinions of others.

*Present: oral exam in the form of project presentation, interview, or simulation of situations, for the practice of consolidating skills for the linguistic production of the English language corresponding to your level, as indicated by your teacher.
